CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SRI SAI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN STUDENTS

INTRODUCTION

As a student of Sri Sai College for Women, you are expected to adhere to a code of conduct that promotes a safe, respectful, and inclusive learning environment. This code of conduct outlines the expectations for student behavior and provides guidelines for ensuring that all students have a positive and successful experience at the college.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1. Respect for Others: Treat all members of the college community with respect and dignity, regardless of their background, culture, or personal characteristics.
2. Academic Integrity: Maintain the highest standards of academic integrity, including honesty, fairness, and responsibility in all academic endeavors.
3. Safety and Security: Take all necessary precautions to ensure your own safety and the safety of others, and report any incidents or concerns to the college authorities.
4. Respect for College Property: Treat college property with care and respect, and report any damage or vandalism to the college authorities.
5. Compliance with College Policies: Familiarize yourself with and comply with all college policies, including those related to academic programs, student conduct, and campus facilities.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

1. Attendance and Punctuality: Attend classes regularly and arrive on time, unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.
2. Academic Performance: Meet the academic standards and requirements of your program, and seek help when needed.
3. Communication: Communicate respectfully and professionally with college staff, faculty, and peers, including in person, via email, and through social media.
4. Use of Technology: Use college technology resources responsibly and in accordance with college policies, including those related to computer use, internet access, and social media.
5. Campus Events: Participate in campus events and activities in a respectful and responsible manner, and follow all instructions and guidelines provided by college staff and faculty.

PROHIBITED BEHAVIOR

1. Harassment and Bullying: Engaging in any form of harassment or bullying, including verbal, physical, or online behavior.
2. Discrimination: Engaging in any form of discrimination, including based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic.
3. Theft and Vandalism: Engaging in any form of theft or vandalism, including damage to college property or the property of others.
4. Disorderly Conduct: Engaging in any form of disorderly conduct, including behavior that disrupts the learning environment or poses a threat to the safety of others.
5. Academic Dishonesty: Engaging in any form of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism, or falsification of academic records.

CONSEQUENCES OF MISCONDUCT

1. Warning: A verbal or written warning may be issued for minor infractions.
2. Disciplinary Action: Disciplinary action, including suspension or expulsion, may be taken for more serious infractions.
3. Restorative Action: Restorative action, including mediation or counseling, may be required to address the impact of misconduct on the college community.

REPORTING INCIDENTS

1. Incident Reporting: Report any incidents or concerns to the college authorities, including the Dean of Students, the Campus Safety Office, or the Title IX Coordinator.
2. Anonymous Reporting: Anonymous reporting is available through the college's online reporting system or through a third-party reporting service.

AMENDMENTS AND UPDATES

This code of conduct may be amended or updated at any time, and students will be notified of any changes through the college's website, email, or other official channels.
